

FREMONT JOURNAL.

EXTRA.

Tuesday Morning, 6 o'clock, April 23d, 1861.

The Star Spangled Banner.

Ou, say can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming, Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming;
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there?
Oh! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses:
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream, 'Tis the star spangled banner! oh, long may it wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country, shall leave us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution:
No refuge could save the hireling and slave, From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave.

And the star spangled banner in triumph doth wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their lov'd home, and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n resued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation;
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust." And the star spangled banner in triumph shall
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

To the Fremont Troops who leave to-day at the call of the Government.

Brothers! the whole people of Fremont greet you and give you their parting blessing. Nobly have you buckled on the armor of your country, at her call. Nobly do we feel that you will defend her rights. Fremont knows, in this cause, no party. We are united in our fealty to the Government of the United States. We have no differences here. In politics and in religion—all—all are united in this thing.

You are our representatives. We cannot all go. But we all send with you our best wishes, and our blessing. We will remember you.— We shall hope to hear tidings of good from you.

If you are called to the battle-field, we are confident you will remember that you represent the homes of those who see every day the scene of glory which still lives on our own "Fort Stephenson." The Flag which was then triumphant, we are sure you will defend, not only, but carry to victory. Going from such a home, we know the ardor which will nerve you up to maintain ever the cause of our country.

We will remember your families who are with us, we will remember and pray for you when away. Go, and the God of justice and of mercy go with you.

Printers have always been considered among the most patriotic citizens in the Union. In the late Mexican war they were numbered by hundreds. In the two Companies first raised in Fremont, there are six Printers, and one ex-Editor. In Company, No. 1, Charles M. Fouke, 1st Lieutenant, who was foreman in the JOURNAL Office for several years; James Maxwell, who has worked in the JOURNAL Office for five years; Wm. Myers, formerly an apprentice in the same office; James Dougherty, a hand in the Messenger Office, and J. S. Camp. In Company No. 2, Wm. E. Haynes, Capt., and Ex-Editor E. F. Dickinson, 1st Lieutenant. They all know how to handle the shooting-stick, and we trust they will mind to drive the quoin's home tight. Success to the printer boys.

On Wednesday of last week, Hon. R. P. Buckland, of this place, received orders from the Adjutant-General to enroll a company of 75 Volunteer men. Three Companies have been raised.
In addition to this a Company of Home Guards has been formed, composed of men over 45 years of age. A German Independent Company has been formed, and on Monday afternoon a paper was started for signatures for a Company of Minute men, to be called the Cro-ghan Guards, and at dark last evening some 40 names had been enrolled.

The Croghan Guards will meet at 9 o'clock at the Store room of H. Nolf, opposite McCulloch's Drug Store, to assist in escorting the Fremont Volunteers to the Cars. It is hoped that all will turn out.

THE HOME GUARDS will assemble at 9 o'clock this morning at Birchard Hall.

Fremont Company No. 2, held an election on Monday morning for officers. Wm. E. Haynes was elected Captain; E. F. Dickinson 1st Lieutenant, and Craighton Thompson 2d Lieutenant.

Ritter & Rawson's Company wanted but three men of being complete last night at 10 o'clock. The Company will elect its officers this morning.

The Ballville Marshal Band deserve great credit for giving their services in raising the Volunteer Companies in this place. Their soul-stirring music has made every heart swell with patriotism, and has caused many to determine anew that they will defend the Stars and Stripes wherever assailed, and at all hazards.

Our citizens were somewhat surprised, as well as amused, this morning, to find a rope stretched across Front street from the top of the buildings, with an effigy suspended by the neck from it, labelled "Traitor." It is an indication of how the boys mean to serve "Massa Jeff," when they get him.

THE MINISTRY SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT.—
The following letter was forwarded to Mr. Lincoln on the 16th:

CINCINNATI, O., April 15, 1861.
To A. LINCOLN, President of the United States, and his Cabinet:

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned, a committee appointed by the Ministers of the M. E. Church in this city, have the pleasure to transmit the following resolution adopted at their meeting this day as expressive of their sentiments: Resolved, That the Administration should be sustained in maintaining the Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws; and the Church and Ministry should, with all good citizens, render all appropriate aid.
With high respect,

M. DREW,
GRANVILLE MOODY,
J. M. WALTON, Com.

Rev. Granville Moody has shown his faith by his works, in raising a company of Volunteers at Xenia, O., of which he has been elected to the Captaincy. He is of the Cromwell style, who "trust in God and keep their powder dry."

ATTENTION GUARDS!
The Fremont Home Guards, and the Independent German Company, are requested to meet in front of the Cro-ghan House at 10 o'clock this (Tuesday) Morning, to act as an escort to the Volunteer Companies who are to take their departure on the noon train.
By order of the Executive Committee, O. BALL, Secretary. J. L. GREENE, President.

To the Fremont Volunteers.

TUNE—"Dixie's Land."
Let's sing a song before we part,
A song to cheer us as we start,
Away, away, away, away;
So here's good bye to all the Dears, Left by the "FREMONT Volunteers,"
Away, away, away, away;
CHORUS—For we'll fight for the Union, Hurrah! Hurrah!
With many a whack, we'll clear the track,
And send the rebels howling back, Away, away, for we are for the Union.

The north is waking up at last,
Her men are gathering thick and fast;
Away, away, away, away;
The Quaker State is pouring in,
New York sends lots of Men and Tin,
Away, away, away, away;
CHORUS—For we'll fight for the Union, &c.

Their General Beauregard, they say, Will take the Capitol some day,
Away, away, away, away;
If, as they say he's on the march,
From him we soon will take the starch,
Away, away, away, away;
CHORUS—For we'll fight for the Union, &c.

Such traitors as Wigfall and Twiggs, May have to dance some airy jig,
Away, away, away, away;
If there's a Tory in this town, He's got to leave or kneel down,
Away, away, away, away;
CHORUS—For we'll fight for the Union, &c.

Ohio, too, is out for fight,
And money matters made all right,
Away, away, away, away;
A million voted for supply,
And men to fight until they die,
Away, away, away, away;
CHORUS—For we'll fight for the Union, &c.

Yesterday's Report.

New York, April 22.—A thousand barrels of powder was seized yesterday, bound to New Orleans; also, a lot of blank registrations of Vessels for Confederate States.
All vessels bound to sea are closely watched.
Senator Wilson, of Mass., enlisted as a private in battalion of Riflemen of Massachusetts.

Senator Baker of Oregon, has been chosen Col. of a regiment of Californians.— They raised $25,000 for their equipment.
Gov. Morgan received telegram that 8th regiment of Mass., under Gen Butler, had arrived safely and landed at Fort McHenry on Saturday.

Richard Lathers avows himself for Union and the flag—said nothing but secession flags fly in Baltimore. No man dare proclaim himself Union. A Vigilance Committee held permanent session at Barnum's to spot every stranger that arrived.
Armed men are stationed to prevent rebuilding bridges.

Advices from Washington state that the Government had planted cannon on all highs overlooking the city. There are about 10,000 men under arms. Wm. B.
Astor offered to give the government $4,000,000 and loan it $10,000,000.

Independent, Mo., April 21.—There were only 160 muskets nearly 200 rifles and 3 cannon taken from the Arsenal in Clay county, and they were taken only to protect the citizens from any raving bands of desperadoes that may attack the country.
A bond was given for them, and they will be replaced when demanded by the proper authorities. Other cannon and guns there were not taken.

Bridgeport, April 21.—$2500 were subscribed to equip the 3 companies organized for the Connecticut Regiments. $6000 for the support of families of Volunteers have been subscribed.

Concord, N. H., April 21.—Ex-President Pierce made a speech, counseling people to uphold the flag and be true to their country.

Philadelphia, April 22.—The whole city is a military company. Rumors are received that Fort McHenry is shelling Baltimore. Sherman's Battery had arrived and was laying at the depot.

Albany, April 22.—Banks of this city tender $3,500,000 for war purposes.

Monday Night's Report.

Philadelphia, April 22.—Hon. Morris Corry, special messenger from Washington says he witnessed the scenes at Baltimore and says history will record that although 100 of the Massachusetts troops were leveled by missiles, and arms wrested from them, they did not fire until commanded to do so by the authorities of Baltimore. Gov.
Hicks was reported to be in hands of mob.

New York, April 22.—Maj. Albergos of Buffalo, who has been in Baltimore several months, arrived here to-day with several other gentlemen, having chartered a Canal Boat; they report that the condition of the city is fearful.

The streets are barricaded, shutters of the houses loop-holed for musketry. Every gun store is emptied. It is believed that a northerner's life is not worth the purchase when the first gun of war is fired. He said Union men are fleeing for their lives.

Buffalo, April 22.—Common Council of this city unanimously appropriated $50,000 to equip volunteers and support their families, also permitting the clerks of the several departments to enlist without loss of situations or salary. Our citizens have raised $25,000 for the same purposes.

New York, April 22.—A regiment of riflemen is forming here composed of Italians, Swiss and Hungarians, to be called the Garibaldi Guards. The British residents are forming a regiment of Light Infantry; 1 company is complete, and the second is forming. The report that Gov.
Banks has resigned his position in the Illinois Central Railroad to command a Massachusetts regiment originated in the fact that President Burnside of the same road is to be Colonel of a Rhode Island regiment. Geo. B. McClelland of the same road has accepted a Brigadier Generalship in the Pennsylvania forces. Collector Barney states that a gentleman officially connected with the Government says he has information from Washington that official correspondence has been opened at Washington with the Baltimore authorities, resulting in an understanding on the part of Baltimore to repair the Railroad bridges and telegraph lines and keep communication open for mails, passengers, despatches and troops. Hon. Dan. E. Sickles contemplates raising a regiment to serve during the war.
Maj. Anderson's public reception at the city Hall takes place to-morrow. Commodore Vanderbilt is said to have informed the Government that they can have his whole fleet fully manned and equipped, without the charge of a penny.

Boston, April 22.—Several of the Massachusetts wounded soldiers arrived here this morning, among them Mr. Stephens of Lowell, who was reported dead. He had three ribs broken by paving stones. Mr. S. states that 15 Baltimoreans were taken to the station house with him. He intends to rejoin his regiment as soon as he is able.

Philadelphia, April 22.—A prominent Philadelphian has arrived who left Washington Saturday afternoon. At Baltimore he was arrested as a spy, and only escaped by referring to Baltimoreans.

Several of the Pennsylvania troops who had been missing since the Baltimore riot, have returned here; they report having been in jail in Baltimore. 35 others have been wandering in the woods, they were taken to the neighbors' houses and kindly treated; they have not yet returned.

Danbury, Ct., April 22.—The directors of the Danbury Bank had a meeting Saturday and voted unanimously to offer $75,000 to the Governor, making the total amount offered by our two banks $125,000.

Wilmington, April 22.—An enthusiastic union meeting was held here this P. M., embracing every party creed. The union feeling was very strong. Resolutions were adopted.

Providence, April 22.—Four times the amount advertised for by the general treasurer, as the first installment of the loan authorized by the State was offered at five per cent.

New York, April 22d.—It is stated that a gentleman at Baltimore from Norfolk reports the scuttling of some of the ships there, throwing down the heavy Derrieks, and the destruction of much of the machinery by order of the Government. The Paunee arrived at Norfolk on Sunday, A. M. Mayor Wood's message tonight will recommend the appropriation of $1,000,000 by the city to aid the War. A resolution will be offered to appropriate $500,000 to the widows and orphans of the men who may fall in defence of the Flag. A lot of uniforms for the Southern army have been seized at Stores in Dey street. It appears that a diabolical attempt was made to poison the Massachusetts volunteers aboard the State of Maine while here Friday evening last by sending poisoned brandy aboard. One died, and four or five others have been under its influence, but will probably recover. The perpetrator of the outrage is unknown.

Louisville, April 22d.—Seven companies State Guard, aggregate 650 men, under Col. Tilghman, organized at Paducah, Ky.

St. Louis, April 22d.—Gov. Jackson has called an extra session of the Legislature to meet on Thursday, May 2d., for the purpose of enacting such laws and adopting such measures as may be necessary for the more perfect organization and equipment of the Militia of the State, and to raise money and such other means as may be required to place the State in a proper attitude for defense. Adgt. Gen. Hough has issued orders to the commanding officers of each Military District to assemble their respective commands on the 3d of May, and go into encampment for six days as provided by law.— The thorough organization and equipment of the several Commands are to be reported at once to Head Quarters, and Division inspections are required to give all information respecting the condition of the State forces.

Indianapolis, April 22d.—60 Companies, the full number required from Indiana, have been accepted by the Governor. 35 companies more have tendered their services, and information of 100 additional companies forming. 56 companies will be in Camp to-day.

Bellair, O., April 22d.—Hon. S. A. Douglas and Lady passed west this afternoon enroute for Springfield, Ill.

Newark, New Jersey, April 22.—An immense Union meeting was held here to-day. It is estimated that 50,000 people were present. The city has the appearance of a military camp, and recruiting goes on rapidly.

Bennington, Vt., April 22d.—Troops are pouring in from the back towns. Vermont will not be found wanting. The Legislature assembles to-morrow at Montpelier. An appropriation of $50,000 will unquestionably be made.

Albany, April 22d.—The State authorities have decided to muster into immediate service the balance of the quota of Militia authorized by the act to enroll the Volunteer militia. This gives 17,000 troops in addition to the 17 Regiments previously ordered in conformity with the call of the President. Volunteer Companies are coming in rapidly. Ninety companies have already handed in their Company rolls.

What Must be Done.

The New York Tribune says, in commenting upon the privateering system which Jeff Davis has inaugurated, that these things must be done:

I. All the Southern ports must be blockaded to prevent privateers, alias pirates, from sailing out of and into them.

II. Whenever a privateer sailing under the letters of marque and reprisal of Jeff Davis can be caught, all the men on board, from the captain to the cabin boy, should be at once run up to the yard-arm, without any further trial than an inspection of the ship's papers.

—The Government should attend to these things without delay.

What They Think at the South.

Four New Orleans gentlemen passed through the city on Saturday. They were totally surprised at the military fever which they found in all the Northern States.— They remarked that it was almost universally believed in Louisiana that the whole North could not raise over 75,000 men.— They are fully convinced now of the fallacy of this belief.—Cleve. Leader.

The Cuban women have a trait of character so noble that Madame Le Vert declared she could not refrain from mentioning it: "They may never speak ill of each other, but always find some palliation for the errors of their own sex." This is a good trait in the fair Havana-se. Would that we could conscientiously say as much of the fair Americanese.
